UNITE FOR SOLD DRY DOMINION

Key-Note of Meetings of the Dominion Alliance Convention at Toronto.

RECONSTRUCTION

Great Work Coming When Province Goes Dry—Borden Cabinet Rapped.

Toronto, March 29.—No matter of what kind or kind, or what creed, or of what religion, the temperance forces of the Dominion present a united front to the liquor traffic, and have set their minds on a "dry" Dominion from the Atlantic to the Pacific as one of the issues of the present war. Dr. A. S. Grant, President of the Dominion Alliance, President Theron Gibson, of the Dominion Alliance, Mr. Joseph Gibson, of Ingersoll, all sounded this note at the convention held yesterday, the second day of the Alliance convention now being held at the Massey Hall. President Theron Gibson presided.

Mr. George A. Warburton, who spoke on behalf of the Committee of One Hundred, urged the temperance advocates to keep their eyes on the prize, and not be enticed by the wave of prohibition now sweeping the country. "We must not root out the traffic," said he, "but we must be prepared to replace it with something that will be a benefit to the public and a source of moral uplift."

ALLIANCE CONGRATULATED.
Speaking of the recent work done by the temperance workers of the Province of Ontario, Mr. Warburton offered his congratulations to the members of the Dominion Alliance and affiliated bodies, who have done as much as half a century in sowing the seeds that resulted in the harvest of prohibition in Ontario.

"We want to commend you for your consistency and hard work," said he. "To your efforts we owe very largely the success of our spectacular campaign. You have worked year by year, and by a process of careful education you prepared the ground for the psychological moment."

Mr. Warburton confessed that "through his absolute separation from any kind of politics he had been able to wield together the forces that have not been before."

"You know what the Government and the Opposition in Queen's Park have done," he continued. "And I know what is before you, but in that connection I want to tell you that I never had such a high opinion of our public men of both parties as I have today. The men make promises and keep them, not a single man attempted a single tricky thing. It speaks well for the Province and the men we are leading us. In our own campaign we did not resort to anything objectionable. We aimed at an educational and constructive campaign, and I believe we succeeded."

MUST HAVE RECONSTRUCTION.
"You temperance people now know that your work in regard to prohibition is only just begun. The reconstruction programme follows, and I am glad to inform you that the Government is going to make it possible for the municipalities to co-operate with us in filling the places of the empty houses. We are face to face with the greatest problem of social reconstruction that ever confronted a people, and we believe that the men and women of the Province will be behind us with their money and their moral support in permanently securing prohibition."

"What does it matter who gets the credit for the results so long as we have obtained them. People before us have forgotten themselves into immortality, let us be unselfish and unite ourselves regardless of credit to insure the great triumph of the temperance army." (Cheers.)

DR. GRANT NOT SATISFIED.
Dr. A. S. Grant declared at the outset of his speech that he was not satisfied with the action of the Dominion Alliance in permitting the transportation and manufacture of liquor in the Province. "If this is to be continued, then let the Federal Government, in this hour of the nation's peril, show some leadership and eliminate it by taking such a step which would entrench themselves in the hearts of the people, and become as solid as a rock. We should have no compromise in the matter of the continuance of the war or for the years afterwards, then a vote of the people. This can be easily done because the Federal authorities have absolute control over the matter of trade and commerce."

"I care not what it costs the Government in revenue, because our greatest assets, the men and women of this country, are at stake. You cannot govern this country without the aid of the religious organizations, and we are the majority. We should be encouraged by the fact that we have the right to, but we do not receive the consideration that a small minority has a right to. We cannot obtain these rights by legislation we must win them by the people."

At this juncture an interesting diversion was caused by the appearance of Lieut.-Col. Hagar, of the 20th Battalion, accompanied by soldiers, who carried a banner on which was inscribed the following: "20th Battalion—Dry."

Col. Hagar appealed for support in his efforts to recruit a "dry" battalion, and the soldiers unanimously endorsing his plan were cheered. He asked the men required to fill up his battalion.

SAW PREMIER HEART.
During the afternoon session Hon. President Gibson reported to the convention what happened during the interview with Premier Hagar yesterday morning when resolutions of thanks were handed to him. "It was as near like a Methodist love-feast as I can imagine," said he. "There was conviction in the words of the Premier, who declared that the Government will do its whole duty."

Mr. Theron Gibson, in his Presidential address, said: "You can do so much from this place confident that the Government will do its utmost. I assure the Government that the Committee of One Hundred and the Dominion Alliance would back them. Let us have faith and make the prohibition act the best ever passed by any Legislature."

THE FAMILY PHYSICIAN

"Fruit-a-lives" is the Standby In This Ontario Home

Scotland, Ont., Aug. 25, 1913
"My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on 'Fruit-a-lives.' We have used it in the family for about two years, as long as we can get 'Fruit-a-lives.'"

J. W. HAMMOND.
"FRUIT-A-LIVES" is made from fruit juices and tonics—is mild in action—and pleasant in taste. It is a box, 6 for 12, 12 for 25. At dealers, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives, Limited, Ottawa.

At this juncture an interesting diversion was caused by the appearance of Lieut.-Col. Hagar, of the 20th Battalion, accompanied by soldiers, who carried a banner on which was inscribed the following: "20th Battalion—Dry."

Col. Hagar appealed for support in his efforts to recruit a "dry" battalion, and the soldiers unanimously endorsing his plan were cheered. He asked the men required to fill up his battalion.

During the afternoon session Hon. President Gibson reported to the convention what happened during the interview with Premier Hagar yesterday morning when resolutions of thanks were handed to him. "It was as near like a Methodist love-feast as I can imagine," said he. "There was conviction in the words of the Premier, who declared that the Government will do its whole duty."

THE FAMILY PHYSICIAN

"Fruit-a-lives" is the Standby In This Ontario Home

Scotland, Ont., Aug. 25, 1913
"My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on 'Fruit-a-lives.' We have used it in the family for about two years, as long as we can get 'Fruit-a-lives.'"

J. W. HAMMOND.
"FRUIT-A-LIVES" is made from fruit juices and tonics—is mild in action—and pleasant in taste. It is a box, 6 for 12, 12 for 25. At dealers, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives, Limited, Ottawa.

and the immediate calling up of men between 18 and 30 years of age, who are to be put in training, but who will not be sent abroad.

Mr. Long opened by denouncing Lord Derby's policy of recruiting, from what he called unjust attacks. He said that Lord Derby's demands had been reasonable and that the Government had made nearly all his wishes, his other suggestions and demands, and that the Government had been fair in its treatment of the men.

As the result of the investigations of a committee, appointed for that purpose, the Government had found it possible to reduce greatly the number of reserved forces, and to release many more men in munitions factories to an extent previously believed impossible, by which means a large number of men had already been released for military service.

By the first of May he said, a large number of occupations connected with the manufacture of munitions, would be removed altogether from the reserved list, and steps were being taken to investigate whether it was possible similarly to release many more men without reducing the cost output.

Two hundred and seventy-five women had been recruited for commercial, clerical and transport work, and another fourteen thousand for farm work.

Mr. Long said an eloquent tribute to Lord Derby's policy of recruiting, from what he called unjust attacks. He said that Lord Derby's demands had been reasonable and that the Government had made nearly all his wishes, his other suggestions and demands, and that the Government had been fair in its treatment of the men.

TORPEDOING ALL VESSELS NO WARNING

Evidence Grows That German Campaign of Brutality is Becoming Worse.

WASHINGTON'S VIEW

Only Attempt at Rescue is When Ships Are Sinking Slowly.

London, March 29.—British naval officials point out that none of the British vessels, armed or unarmed, torpedoed since the outbreak of the new German submarine campaign has received any warning, nor has the crew been removed except where the torpedoed ship sank slowly.

A report, which has been made public, shows that four unarmed British merchantmen engaged in trade between Britain and America were torpedoed by German submarines.

The British steamship Manitowick, which was torpedoed on March 27, was sunk in the North Atlantic, and the British steamship Manitowick, which was torpedoed on March 27, was sunk in the North Atlantic.

Chicago, March 30.—At the high point yesterday wheat showed over 5 cents advance from the recent low, of which 5 cents have been in the last three days. This is enough bulge for the present, as many traders saw it, and they took for more reaction. Traders, taking a bearish view of the market, said there were too many operators here who are bearish at heart, but for the present are bullish and long wheat on crop damage reports.
